

ab

• benchmark model on baseline stimuli • benchmark model on controversial stimuli • model used during selection (highlighted) — line connects same selection model: baseline ↔ all-models

$\tilde{\Delta}$ = median paired difference (set – baseline) across benchmark models. Spread = median absolute pairwise model-score difference, normalised to the baseline column.